

Metal structures

Metal constructions are off-the-peg designed with standard width (18, 25, 36 m). The length can be flexible and absolutely meets Customer's requests. Covering depends on climate conditions. It can be made by single or double PVC membrane, thermo-isolated membrane or sandwich panels.

Sliding design system of side walls enables opening and conditioning of the hall in a summer season.

