

Tension structures

DUOL tension structures are modern fabric architecture bases on lightweight and durable elements. Tensioned fabric structures are beautiful structural elements that provide weather protection or comfortable point of relaxing and gathering.